J.K. Rowling is the author of a successful series of books. She uses the initials J.K. because her publishers thought that a book by a woman might not appeal _____ (1) boys. Rowling was born in 1965 and brought up in England and South Wales. After she finished university, she got a job in London. In 1990, while she was traveling from Manchester to London, her train was held _____ (2) and during the four-hour delay she got the idea of writing about a young wizard. In 1991 she _____ (3) to Portugal, where she had a job teaching English, and she _____ (4) the manuscript for the first Harry Potter book with her. She returned to Britain in 1993 and carried _____ (5) writing it. Rowling completed Harry Potter and The Philosopher's Stone in 1995. Twelve publishers turned _____ (6) before Bloomsbury agreed to publish it. The decision was apparently _____ (7) by the young daughter of the company's chairman, who loved the first chapter of the book. In 1995 Bloomsbury advised Rowling that she had little chance _____ (8) making money writing children's books. Today she has a fortune of around $ 1 billion. Rowling believes that people who have a lot of money should _____ (9) sure they use it responsibly. For this reason, she has given _____ (10) millions of dollars to charitable causes.

Task 4. For questions 11-16, read the text below and choose A, B, or C to fill in the gaps.

I went to a new Italian restaurant last night. It claimed to _____ (11) for everyone's tastes. I went there with my brother. We both have a _____ (12) preference for Italian food. We also both have a _____ (13) liking for sitting out-of-doors and this restaurant had a lovely garden. Unfortunately, the food did not _____ (14) us quite so much pleasure. Although the staff gave us a very warm welcome when we arrived, they didn't seem to _____ (15) much pride in their service or their cooking. I certainly don't much relish the thought of going there again.
